

DIVINE DIRECTIONS FOR CHURCH DISCIPLINE

Text: Titus 3:9-15

May 29, 2016

INTRODUCTION

- ❖ Church Discipline is a crucial component of church life commanded in Scripture that is widely neglected by evangelicals in our day.
- ❖ In Titus 3:9-15, Paul provides five divine directions by which the body of Christ is to conduct the practice of church discipline.

MAIN POINTS

- 1. We must avoid the foolish
- 2. We must reject the divisive
- 3. We must follow the leader
- 4. We must maintain works that bare fruit
- 5. We must embrace the faithful
 - A. Express the love we share
 - B. Pray for the grace we need

CONCLUSION

- ❖ There are three means by which we must begin practicing church discipline as a church.
- ❖ Church Discipline is imperative for successful discipleship.